COMMENTS OF SIETE GRANDE TELEVISION, INC.

Siete Grande Television, Inc. ("Siete Grande"), by its attorneys, hereby submits its Comments on the Commission's Notice of Proposed Rule Making ("NPR") released April 2, 2004 in the above-referenced rulemaking proceeding. With respect thereto Siete Grande states as follows:

1 The NPR was issued in response to a Petition for Rulemaking filed by Siete Grande on January 6, 2004. The Petition for Rulemaking seeks the substitution of DTV channel 8 in Ponce, Puerto Rico, for channel 66, the DTV channel originally assigned to WSTE-TV. The Petition for Rulemaking and the accompanying engineering statement in support thereof are expressly incorporated by reference herein.

2. As the NPR states, the proposed channel substitution is in full compliance with the principal community coverage requirements and de minimis interference requirements of the Commission's Rules. The substitution will replace an out of core channel with one that is within the core. The substitution will permit Siete Grande to conserve its resources by building the DTV station (the one on Channel 8) during the transition rather than two stations at different site locations. Siete Grande expressly reiterates its intention to apply for channel 8, if authorized, and to build a station promptly. To that end it has located a new site on which it will co-locate its analog and DTV antenna. An application will be filed for the new DTV facilities on channel 8 at the new site location promptly upon the adoption of the Commission's order amending the TV Table of Allotments to substitute channel 8 for channel 66 at Ponce, Puerto Rico.

3. The amendment of the Table of Allotments will help facilitate a more efficient use of the spectrum. The substitution can be made without affecting the existing channel assignment of any other Commission licenses or properties in Puerto Rico. Hence, since a channel change for WSTE-TV's existing DTV allocation ultimately will become necessary, the proposed substitution serves the public interest since it will enable the earlier return of spectrum on out of core frequencies. Because WSTE-TV's construction permit to build facilities on channel 66 expires on September 30, 2004, expedited action on this rulemaking proposal respectfully is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

SIETE GRANDE TELEVISION, INC.
